

INTERVIEWING INFLUENCERS:

NIALL KELLY

Niall Kelly is a Dublin based Fashion Designer currently living and working in London. He is a designer who personally focuses on creating outfits which are both accessible to all genders and pay homage to his Irish heritage. When asked about his inspiration for his designs, Niall credits his background and heritage growing up in Dublin city;

“When living in Dublin, it was almost impossible to ignore its’ rich history. The main inspiration of my designs come from clothing in the early 1900s, particularly during and after the Easter Rising as it was such a definable period in Irish History.”

Another aim of Niall’s work is to help tackle toxic masculinity and femininity.

“When you grow up in the late 90s in a place like this, you can’t help but feel like you are constantly held to this inachievable standard. My work aims to tackle the narrative of gender roles in fashion; it has no place in the 21st Century and I reflect that in my work.”
